

Association of Spirit Industry Professionals

What is ASIP?

The Association of Spirit Industry Professionals (ASIP) is the membership-based organization for educational organizations, suppliers, publications, competition organizers, safety organizations, and gym owner groups for the spirit industry.

The mission of ASIP is to:

- Identify, assimilate, and share industry news, trends, and concerns
- Create a forum to discuss and improve member business opportunities
- Grow the participation in spirit activities to the benefit of the participants and members of this organization.

Why should you become an ASIP member?

- Largest Spirit Trade Association in the world - over 100 participating companies in the U.S. and Internationally.
- It's a great way to reach your target audience.
- Network with other member companies!
- Receive significant recognition on the ASIP website (spiritindustry.com).
- Lifetime Achievement Award presentation at the Annual Conference along with world class business experts/speakers
- Low annual fees to encourage participation

We invite you and your company to join us!
